> Supply of Eggs is Remarkably Small -Irish Potatoes Weakening in Price.

The fine weather for transacting business is having a gratifying effect on nearly all lines of trade and that the business of September is to be in excess of the volume of the corresponding month of 1900 is not questioned, unless unforseen obstacles arise. The wholesale merchants have prepared for a big fall trade. Retail merchants are in a cheerful mood, say the traveling salesmen, and inclined to push business this fall. The dry goods houses had a busy time yesterday and prices ruled steady. The wholesale millinery houses also had a Jeffrey, chairman of the association, an- busy day yesterday, numerous outside buyers being in the city.

Wholesale grocers say they have no room for complaint as to the sales or the manner bills are being met. Druggists are busy; most articles they handle carry a steady fort, Mich., cut the figure to 25 cents. The tone. The confectioners report their trade Pere Marquette asked $5 for return tickets and did not meet the Ann Arbor cut. The showing a decided improvement with the coming of cooler weather. On Commission row everything seems abundant in the fruit and vegetable line; even Irish potatoes, which have been selling at luxury prices, are beginning to weaken in prices. Peaches of road, with all appurtenances, was made | are still in large supply and selling low. unless very choice fruit. Lemons and oranges are slow of sale.
